THE GOVERNMENT ACCOUNTANTS JOURNAL

Index to Volume XXX

—A—

Abbadessa, John P.
AGA Supports Accountability Act, Spring, 39–42.
Accounting, General
Pricing Goods and Services of an Internal Service Department, Robert W. Owens, Spring, 43–46.
The Effect of Changing Concepts of Regulation on the Accounting Profession, Ronald S. Hertz, Fall, 10–14.
Accounting Standards
Government Accounting Standards: The Compliance Issue, Leonard E. Berry & Fred A. Jacobs, Winter, 30–36.
Is Accounting That's Good for General Motors Also Good for Detroit? Allan R. Drebin, Spring, 28–33.
Accounting Training
In Response to a Need, Joseph R. Razek & Gordon A. Hosch, Spring, 27–34.
On Conducting Training Programs for State and Local Government Units, Jos. R. Razek & Gordon A. Hosch, Winter, 17–19.
AGA
AGA: Years Twenty-Six Through Thirty, National History Committee, Fall, 38–56.
Andreason, John
(See Duncombe)
Auditing, General
Accounting Systems: Where Are the Auditors? Cornelius E. Tierney, Spring, 11–15.
Nourishment of Alligators in Drainable Swamps, Carl E. Weber, Spring, 50–52.
On-Line Auditing, Philip Kropatkin, Spring, 47–49.
Problem Area Identification, Alfred M. Clavelli, Fall, 26–30.
Women Auditors—A Quiet Invasion into the Male World, James R. Brown, Spring, 24–27.
Audit, Single
Implementation of the Single Audit Approach, A Status Report, Allan Reynolds, Summer, 1–7.
Audit Standards
The Revised Government Audit Standards, Mortimer A. Dittenhofer, Fall, 1–9.

—B—

Berry, Leonard E. (with Jacobs)
Government Accounting Standards, Winter, 30–36.
Bowsher, Charles A.
Raising Financial Management Standards: Challenge for Change, Winter, 26–29.
Brace, Paul K.
(See Steinberg)
Brown, James R.
Women Auditors—A Quiet Invasion into the Male World, Spring, 24–27.
Brown, Ray L.
You Have Done Research—Whether You Know It or Not, Summer, 46–49.
Budgeting
Capital Budgeting in the Federal Government, Richard G. Stevens & V. K. Venkataraman, Winter, 45–50.
Limitations in Federal Budget Execution, Frank D. Draper & Bernard T. Pitsvada, Fall, 15–25.
Zero-Based Budgeting in Idaho, Sidney Duncombe, John Andreason and Lawrence Seale, Summer, 24–35.

—C—

Cash Management
Cash Management in Government, Various Authors, Winter, 1–16.
Cherry, Alan A.
(See Holder).
Clavelli, Alfred M.
Problem Area Identification, Fall, 26–30.
Common Body of Knowledge
The Common Body of Knowledge for Government Accountants, James G. Fox, Spring 16–23.

—D—

Dittenhofer, Mortimer
The Revised Government Audit Standards, Fall, 1–9.
Draper, Frank D. (with Pitsvada)
Limitations in Federal Budget Execution, Fall, 15–25.
Drebin, Allan
Is Accounting That's Good for General Motors Also Good for Detroit? Spring, 28–33.
Duncombe, Sidney (with Andreason & Seale)
Zero-Based Budgeting in Idaho, Summer, 24–35.

—E—

Effectiveness Evaluation
Evaluating Efficiency in the Public Sector, Robert W. Ingram, Winter, 20–25.

—F—

Financial Management, International
Opportunities to Help Improve Government Financial Management in Latin America, James Wesberry, Summer, 36–45.
Financial Management, General
How the Federal Government Almost Shut Down, Edward J. Migliore, Summer, 8–13.
Raising Financial Management Standards: Challenge for Change, Charles A. Bowsher, Winter, 26–29.
Financial Management Systems
A Comprehensive Approach to Management, James A. Hickey, Fall, 31–37.
Financial Reporting
FASB Study of Service Efforts and Accomplishments, Harold Steinberg & Paul Brace, Spring, 1–10.

Financial Reporting by Government: A Suggested Approach, William W. Holder & Alan A. Cherry, Summer, 14–23.
Government Financial Statements: A Challenge Which Must Be Met, James Wesberry, Winter, 37–44.
Fox, James G.
The Common Body of Knowledge for Government Accountants, Spring, 16–23.

—H—

Hertz, Ronald S.
The Effect of Changing Concepts of Regulation on the Accounting Profession, Fall, 10–14.
Hickey, James A.
A Comprehensive Approach to Management, Fall, 31–37.
Holder, William W. (with Cherry)
Financial Reporting by Government, Summer, 14–23.
Hosch, Gordon A.
(See Razek)

—I—

Ingram, Robert W.
Evaluating Efficiency in the Public Sector, Winter, 20–25.
Internal Control
AGA Supports Accountability Act, John P. Abbadessa, Spring, 39–42.

—J—

Jacobs, Fred A.
(See Berry)

—K—

Kropatkin, Philip
On-Line Auditing, Spring, 47–49.

—M—

Migliore, Edward J.
How the Federal Government Almost Shut Down, Summer, 8–13.
McShan, Clyde G.
Improving Productivity in Accounting and Finance, Summer, 50–55.

—N—

National History Committee
AGA: Years Twenty-Six Through Thirty, Fall, 38–56.

—O—

Owens, Robert W.
Pricing Goods and Services in an Internal Service Department, Spring, 43–46.

—P—

Pitsvada, Bernard T.
(See Draper)
Productivity
Improving Productivity in Accounting and Finance, Clyde G. McShan II, Summer, 50–55.

—R—

Razek, Joseph R. (with Hosch)
In Response to a Need, Spring, 27–34.
On Conducting Training Programs for State and Local Governments, Winter, 17–19.
Research
You Have Done Research—Whether You Know It or Not, Ray L. Brown, Summer, 46–49.
Reynolds, Allan I.
Implementation of the Single Audit Approach: A Status Report, Summer, 1–7.

—S—

Seale, Lawrence
(See Duncombe)
Steinberg, Harold I. (with Brace)
FASB Study of Service Efforts and Accomplishments, Spring, 1–10.
Stevens, Richard G. (with Venkataraman)
Capital Budgeting in the Federal Government, Winter, 45–50.

—T—

Tierney, Cornelius E.
Accounting Systems—Where Are the Auditors? Spring, 11–15.

—V—

Venkataraman, V. K.
(See Stevens)

—W—

Weber, Carl E.
Nourishment of Alligators in Drainable Swamps, Spring, 50–52.
Wesberry, James P.
Government Financial Statements: A Challenge Which Must Be Met, Winter, 37–44.
Opportunities to Help Improve Government Financial Management in Latin America, Summer, 36–45.